WELCOME TO PARTNERS IN TREATMENT

A conference built on connection

The Partners in Treatment Annual Conference on Mental Health returns to Scottsdale for its fifth annual gathering. Launched through the collaborative vision of several partner facilities, PIT brings healthcare professionals together for superior clinical education and authentic community.

600+

mental health professionals[1]

142

exhibitors at Scottsdale 2026

Who you'll meet

Treatment organization executives, therapeutic and educational consultants, interventionists, social workers, marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, psychologists, psychiatrists, case managers and educators. Our community brings together Arizona professionals and colleagues from across the country.

Why PIT is different

Education with integrity. Conference leadership selects clinical presenters and topics. Sponsorship does not purchase a clinical speaking slot.

Relationships have room to grow. A welcoming exhibit hall, shared meals and networking events create time for real conversations with peers, experts and exhibitors.

Value beyond visibility. Showcase your services and resources while strengthening industry relationships. Choose an exhibit table, a targeted event sponsorship or a custom partnership aligned with your goals.

VOICES FROM THE PIT COMMUNITY

The conversations stay with you

"One of my favorite conferences of the year. Every single time. There's something about being in a room full of individuals who are genuinely locked in."

Tyler (TJ) Moore

Director of Clinical Outreach

"The conversations feel real. The connections feel meaningful. I'm grateful to be part of a community like this. One that shows up, supports each other, and keeps pushing to do better."

Heather Amado

Associate Director of Business Development

"Getting to spend time inside different programs, hear how teams are thinking about care, meet the individuals in their care and have the chance to understand how they support people day to day is so valuable."

Kaela Demerjian

Director of National Partnerships & Trauma-Informed Strategist

"So many high-quality operators, clinicians, and founders doing the work the right way. It was meaningful to connect with new faces and spend time with people I've known for years."

RaeEllen Ellis

Executive Growth & Operations Leader

A community people return to

"It was a great reminder of how valuable genuine conversations, shared perspectives, and strong community connections can be. There was a real sense of enlightenment in seeing how collaboration, education, and simple conversations can create such meaningful impact within our communities."

MacKenzie Bonomolo

LAC, Clinical Outreach Representative

"What started as a bold vision has quickly become a space for real conversations, meaningful collaboration, and raising the standard of care across the industry."

Encyrcle

"This is how you build something bigger than yourself—a stronger network, a stronger community, and ultimately a greater impact on the people who need it most."

T.J. Fitzpatrick

Community Impact Manager

"PIT was the first conference I ever went to, and coming back this year felt like a family reunion, minus the gossip and questionable casseroles (we all have that one aunt)."

Michael Oakes

Regional Outreach Manager
